PRE-NUPTIAL AGREEMENT DATAPACK

Dear Prospective Client:

Congratulations! We understand you are about to get married. While we wish both of you only the very best life has to offer you, we would be able to help you to alleviate some of your pre-marital concerns and to devise a Pre-Nuptial Agreement to confirm your respective assets prior to marriage.

Bear in mind that our firm can only represent one of the parties. We are ethically prohibited from even the appearance of offering legal advice or counsel to both parties. The two of you will need to decide now which one of you will be represented by our office

Your case will require an initial personal consultation so that we can understand the facts of your case and advise you on your rights and duties. We charge $200 for an initial consultation, during which we expect to give you a really good idea of what you can expect to happen in your case.

Before we can begin representing one of you in this matter, we will require (1) a signed contract which explains our respective obligations and (2) a legal engagement fee, the size of which will be based on our estimation of the amount of time needed to handle this matter. There is no guarantee, however, that all of your legal expenses will be covered by this Engagement Fee.

Though some of the questions or situations may not apply to your situation, your efforts to complete the attached Pre-nuptial Datapack and provide us with copies of any information or documents pertinent to this matter (including copies of mortgages, bank statements, loan documents, credit card statements, paycheck stubs, etc.) will go a long way to help evaluate your Family Law situation and will help to contain your legal expense.

Any information you provide will, of course, be kept confidential and you are under no obligation until we each execute a written Engagement Agreement.

Very truly yours,

JAMES K. MURPHY
